Dear Parish or Town Clerk,

ELECTORAL REVIEW OF DEVON: DRAFT RECOMMENDATIONS

The Local Government Boundary Commission for England has published draft recommendations on the future electoral arrangements for Devon County Council. Today is the start of an eight week public consultation on the Commission's draft recommendations on new division boundaries across Devon. The consultation closes on 6 July 2015.

View the draft recommendations

You can view the Commission's draft recommendations at <https://consultation.lgbce.org.uk/node/4141> where you can find interactive maps, a report and guidance on how to have your say. The Commission has not finalised its conclusions and now invites representations on the draft recommendations.

Enclosed with this letter is a summary outlining the Commission's draft recommendations outlining the draft recommendations. An interactive map of the Commission's recommendations for Devon, electorate figures and guidance on how to propose new electoral divisions is available on the consultation area at: <https://consultation.lgbce.org.uk/node/4141>. Further information about the review and the Commission's work is also published on our website at: <https://www.lgbce.org.uk/current-reviews/south-west/devon/devon-county-council>.

Have your say

We encourage everyone who has a view on the draft recommendations to contact us whether you support them or whether you wish to propose alternative arrangements.

Before finalising the recommendations, the Commission will consider every representation received during consultation whether it is submitted by an individual, a local group or an organisation. We will weigh each submission against the criteria the Commission must follow when drawing up electoral arrangements:

- To deliver electoral equality where each county councillor represents roughly the same number of electors as others across the county.
- That the pattern of divisions should, as far as possible, reflect the interests and identities of local communities.
- That the electoral arrangements should provide for effective and convenient local government.

It is important that you take account of the criteria if you are suggesting an alternative pattern of divisions. You can find additional guidance and information about previous electoral reviews on our website to help you or your organisation make a submission.

The Commission welcomes comments on the recommendations report by 6 July 2015. Representations should be made:

- Through our interactive consultation portal where you can explore the maps of the recommendations, draw your own boundaries and supply comments at: <https://consultation.lgbce.org.uk/node/4141>.
- By email to: reviews@lgbce.org.uk.
- Or in writing to:

The Commission aims to publish every response it receives during phases of consultation. If you do not want all or any part of your response or name to be made public, you must state this clearly in the response. Any such request should explain why confidentiality is necessary. All responses may be subject to publication or disclosure as required by law (in particular under the Freedom of Information Act 2000).

This is the last opportunity to influence the Commission's recommendations before they are finalised. We therefore encourage local people to get in touch with us and have their say.
