The details to help you decide

Art Exhibition – Littleham Village Hall (10:00-15:00 Saturday 2 – Monday 4 May)

Work exhibited will be by Littleham and Landcross artists and members of the Littleham Art Group. Works for sale include mounted and unmounted work, as well as cards, so there will be something for everyone. Tea/coffee/cakes will be served during opening hours. Entry free.

Children's Percussion Workshop – St Swithun's Church (11:00-12:00 Saturday 2 May)

All welcome. Instruments will be available but if you have your own and would like to bring them along, please do so. Entry free.

Candlelight Supper with Jazz Band – The Old Rectory (18:30-22:30 Saturday 2 May)

Enjoy a delicious home cooked supper, in a beautiful setting, with a jazz band to entertain you throughout the evening. A bar will also be available. Tickets are limited and almost sold out so if you would like to reserve a place please contact Sara Percy on 429829. Cost £12.50 each.

Drawing Room Recital and Tea – The Old Rectory (15:00-17:00 Sunday 3 May)

Featuring Ranald Macdonald and Sheila Bellew singers' Naomi Giddy, Rachel Forbes, and Ana Clements, all accompanied by piano. Tea and sandwiches will also be served. Tickets are limited and can be obtained from Sara Percy on 429829. Cost £5 each.

Taize with four parishes choir – St Swithun's Church (18:30-19:30 3 May)

If you haven't experienced Taize, now is your opportunity. Lynn Pirrie will lead the choir through some beautiful music interspersed with quiet periods for reflection. The church bells will be rung before the service. All welcome. Entry free.

Welcome to Sommar Time Concert – St Swithun's Church (15:00-16:00 Monday 4 May)

Come and enjoy a performance by the much sought after baritone, John Hobbs, accompanied by his wife Margaret and friend Tina Gladwin on viola. The concert will be a mixture of songs, strings and readings with a Scandinavian and summertime theme. Dorothy Hill has also agreed to participate for what may be one of the last times as she is talking of retiring and passing the entertainment mantle on to her son and grandson. Tickets will be available on the door or can be booked by contacting Sara Percy on 429829. Cost £3 each.

Picnic Party with Basil's Blues Band – Littleham Village Hall (19:00-22:30 Monday 4 May)

The evening starts with a Bring Your Own Picnic. This can be as simple or elaborate as you wish (have seen people turn up with candelabra in the past!) ... make up a table with your friends and enjoy a meal together before the music begins. Then dance the night away to Basil's Blues Band. Please also bring your own bottles as we have been unable to obtain a licence for the bar. Tickets available on the door or can be booked by contacting Sara Percy on 429829. Cost £5 each.

Holy Karaoke with Bishop Bob – The Crealock Arms (20:00-21:30 Thursday 7 May)

This will be a first for Bishop Bob so come along and join in the singing. All welcome and entry free.

This Farming Life Folk Evening – Littleham Village Hall (19:30-22:30 Saturday 9 May)

Brilliantly reviewed, a celebration of rural life with film footage dating back to the 1920s; the show combines silent and sound film, songs and spoken word. The entertainment will be accompanied by Pasties, Pickles and Puddings. You can bring your own bottles. Tickets available from Morris Poole on 420372. Cost £8 each.

We would like to thank all those who have so generously given of their time and talents in order that this Festival could become a reality.
